

GEN. MILLS NO LONGER MEMBER OF COMMISSION

Relieved From Duty With Boundary Board; W. W. Keplinger a Consul.

Information has been received in El Paso of the retirement of Gen. Asgton Mills as a member of the United States boundary commission.

The retirement of Gen. Mills follows closely upon that of W. W. Follett, consulting engineer of the commission, and is the third resignation. W. W. Keplinger, secretary of the commission, having resigned some time ago.

Mr. Keplinger has been appointed United States consul at Malta.

GETS TEMPORARY INJUNCTION.

Rosa C. de Zabalgoleto, et al., Monday morning secured a temporary writ of injunction in the first district court, against the Rio Grande, El Paso & Santa Fe Railway company, restraining the railroad from moving a shipment of 15,000 pounds of raw wool valued at $475. The plaintiff alleges the wool was confiscated by Villa agents at Torreon.

GEORGIA PICNIC AT WASHINGTON PARK BIG SUCCESS

Happy Affair Is Largely Attended; Speeches Feature the Annual Outing.

Grass was just as green and the trees as shady in Washington park Saturday afternoon as they are in the state of Georgia. The lawn and trees made an ideal setting for the annual Georgia picnic, which was held at the city park Saturday afternoon and evening.

The barbecue supper was served on the grass, over which tablecloths had been spread. The barbecued meat was prepared in another part of the park and served hot to the Georgians who were present. Watermelons, ice tea, coffee and fried chicken were also served in addition to the barbecued beef and bread.

Like Family Reunion.

The Georgia picnic was like a big family reunion. Many El Pasoans from other states were present as invited guests of the Georgians and enjoyed the hospitality for which the people of that state are famous. Preceding the picnic supper, short speeches were made by El Paso Georgians, including Capt. T. J. Beall, collector Z. L. Cobb, G. L. Jones and John M. Wyatt. Charles Russell presided at this informal speech-making program and was master of ceremonies for the picnic.

Capt. Beall, 78 years old, and the dean of the Georgia society, spoke first to the Georgians. He praised the state in which he was born, its great men and beautiful women. He reviewed the history of the state and of the men who have made it famous throughout the country. Capt. Beall related some of his experiences as a boy in the red hills of Georgia and gave a vivid word picture of the state of his nativity.

Collector Cobb spoke next. He was followed by collector Cobb, who paid Capt. Beall the tribute of calling him the first citizen of El Paso. The collector said that the men and women who were born in the red hills of Georgia had the "stom" in them that carries them to the top. He mentioned John M. Wyatt, Charles R. Russell and other El Pasoans as examples of the success which Georgians had won in this city and said that all Georgians gloried that they were Georgians. He closed with a humorous reference to Mr. Wyatt's annual invitation to hold the picnic on his ranch and added that if they did not hurry the mortgage on it would be due and the society would never have its picnic there. Mr. Wyatt followed the customs collector in a brief speech in which he said that the mortgage had come due and the ranch had been sold, but that he had another ranch and invited the Georgians to picnic there next year.

Georgians Are Praised.

G. L. Jones, who next spoke, also praised Capt. Beall as a man of whom Texas was proud. He said that Texas owed Georgia a great deal because of the men who had come from that state to Texas. He told of the Georgians who had made great successes in life and the work they had done. As a Mississippian he thanked the Georgians for inviting him to the picnic and closed by saying that there are people in El Paso from every section of the country. They thought their own states were great, he said, but thought El Paso and Texas the greatest of all.

CHARGED WITH HAVING ROBBERED FREIGHT CAR

L. J. Buttermore, who is alleged to have been caught in the act of carrying a case of lard from a car in the Southwestern yards near Cotton avenue, Sunday morning was taken into custody by V. Farabee, a car inspector for the Southwestern. Buttermore was held until the arrival of the patrol wagon, when he was taken to the police station and placed in a cell. The man is married and has two children. The family lives at 1716 Myrtle avenue, near where the car of products was standing, it is said.

Buttermore told mounted policeman Tom York that when he was a small boy he received a blow on the head and at times he did not know what he was doing. Buttermore said that he was in the employ of the Texas & Pacific up until five or six months ago. At that time, he said, the railroad company cut down his force and he was laid off.

"Kathlyn's" Own Picture

To those who followed the "Adventures of Kathlyn" for the past twenty-six weeks, "The Leopard's Foundling" will be of exceptional interest. It is another "Kathlyn" story, written, produced and the lead played by Miss Kathlyn Williams, who made the role of "Kathlyn" world famous. It is a peculiar story of the wilds and animals of Africa and it was produced by Selig, who is the originator of animal pictures. It will be shown one day only and that is Thursday. It will be a record breaker, so to be sure of getting in, come Thursday afternoon to the
